Explore the rich cultural history of immigrants in Northern Chester County and how they impacted the growth of the region and influenced everyday life. See photos and artifacts from instructor Ryan Conroy's personal collection and archive for an exciting visual experience.

Our guest lecturer Ryan Conroy has volunteered with multiple local non-profit organizations and businesses in providing historical research, and has authored articles for magazines, websites and blogs.

Ryan currently serves as President of the Spring-Ford Area Historical Society, is a Councilman for Royersford Borough and is past President of the Historical Society of the Phoenixville Area. Ryan has a local history show online for Voxipop called Timeless Tales and he enjoys sharing his love of history and knowledge of some of his favorite subjects such as local history, photography, immigration, and military history.
